Dear Sir

I sent you a letter dated 6 July, the same letter on 9 August and again on 18 September; to which you have not replied. A copy is enclosed.

1 Westferry Circus, Canary Wharf is your registered address. Given that you don't reply to letters and have no name I assume this address is solely for tax purposes and to mix it with the big boys – BP, Barclays, HSBC and Alan Sugar.

I realise that continuing international stability means higher oil prices and so bigger profits, which leads you to think you can afford to be complacent, but I should warn you that I have some pulling power with the bigwigs in OPEC.

I live in desire of a reply.

Yours sincerely

Peter Shullot
