Dear Alex Hunter

I sent you a letter dated 6 July, the same letter on 9 August and again on 18 September; to which you have not replied. A copy is enclosed.

Your slogan is Don't just travel, travel with a smile. To which I say I hope your shares plummet and all your planes crash.

I don't want to start travelling with Cosmos but I have no choice.

I live in despair of a reply.

Yours sincerely

Peter Shullot
